

Made Kept and Used:

Celebrating 30 years of the Australian Society of Archivists

PROGRAM

- 9.00am Registration
- 9.30am Welcome and Opening of Proceedings
Ross Gibbs, Director-General, National Archives of Australia
- 9.45am Access: the democratic imperative
Dr Eric Ketelaar – Professor of Archivistics (Archival Science)
University of Amsterdam and Honorary Professor, Monash University
- 10.45am Morning Tea
- 11.15am Access: the success of advocacy
Dr Sigrid McCausland – Member, ASA Editorial Board
- 12.00pm 30 Years Rule?
Jack Waterford – Editor-in-Chief, Canberra Times
- 12.45pm Lunch
- 1.45pm Indigenous Knowledge and Archives: Mutual Obligations and Incommensurable Onologies
Professor Lynette Russell – Director, Centre for Australian Indigenous Studies, Monash University
- 2.30pm Access: Indigenous Community Perspective
Loris Williams – Archivist, Community & Personal Histories,
Department of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Policy,
Queensland
- 3.15pm Afternoon tea
- 3.45pm It's None of Your Business: Access to Business Archives
Bruce Smith – Partner, Archive Research Consultancy
- 4.30pm Access Alert! Don't Be Alarmed, Archival Access Is A Good Thing
Christine Yeats – Manager, Public Access, State Records NSW
- 5.15pm Conclusion
- 5.30pm Drinks and nibbles on the terrace